

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

SECRET - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.
THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.
(FOR KEY SEE REVERSE)

1. [redacted] Sawmill No. 2 on the southern tip of Brevennik Island. The quay is of wood and is approximately 1,000 feet long. [redacted] the quay had been 5,000 feet in length before the war and is going to be extended again in the near future. Depth was 20 feet measured five feet from the quay and 26 feet ten yards from the quay. 25X1
2. On the way from Sawmill No. 2 to Arkhangelsk [redacted] a small quay large enough to berth one vessel on Khabarka Island, west of Solombala. A medium sized merchant ship was loading timber at the quay. 25X1
3. On the southwestern point of Solombala two small merchant vessels of 2000-3000 tons were undergoing repairs in two floating docks.
4. On the quay of the naval yard at Solombala [redacted] four iron cylinders approximately 30 feet long and 15 feet in diameter. A similar cylinder lay in the river. Four other cylinders of the same length but smaller in diameter than those mentioned above were lying on the quay. 25X1

SECRET - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

TE: Washington distribution indicated by "X"; Field distribution by "#".)